

Message from your local RCMP

As citizens are no doubt aware, the RCMP transition team assumed its duties in the Rural Municipality of East St. Paul in early October as requested by the Province of Manitoba. Effective midnight December 31, 2008, the RCMP will assume full responsibility for policing services in East St. Paul.

Over the last couple of months, local employees have shown their commitment to community safety by working diligently to ensure the smooth transition to RCMP delivery of policing services to the citizens of East St. Paul.

Your RCMP Detachment members appreciate the good working relationship with municipal employees and council. The RCMP would also like to extend its appreciation to all employees of the East St. Paul Police Service for their professionalism and cooperation in face of difficult circumstances.

The RCMP is sensitive to the policing needs of the citizens of East St. Paul. We are committed to preserving the peace, upholding the law and providing quality service in partnership with the community of East St. Paul.

We are also committed to engaging in timely and open communication with the citizens we serve. The RCMP has been meeting regularly with elected officials and encourages community members to bring forward their concerns or questions.

Methods of contacting your local Police Service will remain the same. If any point of contact changes, the RCMP will advise the citizens of East St. Paul in a timely manner.

Contacting your local RCMP

EMERGENCY.....911
or668-8322

Administrative line
(non-urgent).....667-6519

Address: 3021 Birds Hill Road
East St. Paul, Manitoba

Web site: <http://www.rcmp-grc.gc.ca/mb/index.htm>

Sergeant Davy Lee
East St. Paul RCMP

